Times - Virginian

A Note of Appreciation

Editor, Times-Virginian,

I have read with interest an article in your paper by Henry Phelps.

I have known and done banking business with Henry for many years. He has offered some thoughts in his article on the race question which are very good and have my approval.

God made us all and He expects us to help each other and be fair and honest in all our dealings and there is no reason why we can't live in the same town or country and not have any trouble. Most all trouble of every sort starts from a non-Christian viewpoint. Dr.George W. Carver and Booker T. Washington were both great men in their day and respected the world over. Let our Colored friends strive to be like them.

Henry is right in his thoughts and I commend him for his article

Sincerely,

A. R. Harwood.

Impatient Motorist Shortens Crossing Time of Long Train

SEDALIA, MO.—An impatient motorist who rebelled at having to wait at a crossing which a train blocked, leaped out of his car and uncoupled the rear two-thirds of the train.

The impatient motorist, apparently well acquainted with railroad signals and uncoupling of trains, got out of his car and walked over to the coupling which was on the street crossing where he sat. He set the brakes on the rear two-thirds of the train, uncoupled the cars and waved a "high ball" to the engineer. The engineer started his engine in motion.

Other trainmen, seeing their train starting, ran more than a block to stop the engineer from getting out of town with only one-third of his train.

A search of the law books is being made to ascertain if there is some law under which the offender can be arrested and punished for his actions. So far no paragraph has been found in either the Missouri statutes nor in any of the city ordinances covering such an action.

Oklahoman, 80, Still Climbs Telephone Poles for Health

MARAMEC, OKLA.—Although he is 80 years old, Lee Newlin plans to go on shinnying up telephone poles because "it is the best exercise in the world."

He has been doing it for 40 years as lineman on his privately-owned telephone exchanges, the last of which is his 80-subscriber Maramec system.

"I'm not going to retire," he said. "I know I've been promising people I would climb my last pole when I was 80. But, well, I just feel so dadgummed good, I'm going to keep going."

Newlin said he hadn't had a sick day for 40 years.

The octogenarian is one of the fast-fading band of pioneer telephone men who established service in Oklahoma in the days when every town and city had its privately owned system.

He has been in the business since 1909, and the local exchange is his sixth. A woman assistant has been his operator for 19 years, and he occasionally relieves her at the switchboard. But all the line repairs and installation of new phones are done by him.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, Cardui should relieve functional dysmenorrhea, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to such functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Uncle Sam Says

Some day soon—perhaps this very day—one of Uncle Sam's volunteer representatives is going to ring your doorbell to ask you to do one of the most important things you can do now for yourself and your country. He or she is going to urge you to start, or to increase, your buying of United States Savings Bonds under a patriotic, automatic and regular plan. If you heed my nephew or nieces' advice, you'll be doing yourself a favor. For these security bonds—as they do their part to insure a stable economy, cornerstone of the future security of our country—will pay you back $4 for every $3 ten years from now. They can mean financial security for you and your family. AMERICA'S SECURITY IS YOUR SECURITY!

High School Chatter . . .

Hi! We are back to let you know the latest happenings around A. H. S.

The Sophomore class is to present the play, "The City Slicker and Our Nell," Thursday at 8:00 P. M., in the school auditorium.

The picture, "The Dancing Pirate," was shown to the students Friday evening.

What's this we hear about Betsy at Betty Sue's birthday party? Maybe Billy could tell you something about it. Jean is certainly stepping out lately. We wonder what Keith said about Saturday night. We certainly would like to know what F. J. and Jean find to talk about so much. Annie Ruth and Fred seem to enjoy each other's company.

Congratulations to Mr. Dresser. We have just seen an announcement of his engagement in the paper.

The Seniors are still wondering who will take part in the Senior play. Quite a few Seniors have tried out for parts.

The Music Appreciation and the Latin plays have been postponed until May 6th. The date was to have been April 27th.

A picture, "The Shortest Way Home," was shown by Mrs. Weinberg to several classes Monday. It showed many interesting places which one can visit in the United States.

The Ides of March, by Thornton Wilder. In this book, the Caesar of history becomes Caesar, the human being, as he appeared to his family, his Rome, and his Empire. It is not only an accurate portrayal of Caesar himself, but offers a vivid picture of Rome and the Romans—of all types and classes. The days leading up to Caesar's assassination are unusually described in this novel.

WILLIAMSON HONORED

Merwyn W. Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williamson, of Route 4, Appomattox, was recently initiated into the Tau Kappa Alpha,national debating fraternity, at Lynchburg College.

Mr. Williamson will receive his B. A. degree from the college in June.

Richmond, April 22.- (Special to Times-Virginian) Included in an advertisement issued by the State Highway Department April 21 for road construction bids is a project in Appomattox County.

Contractors are asked to submit bids May 6 for the Cedar Lane revision on Route 24 between Appomattox Court House and Vera. The proposed construction covers .6 miles of 20-foot stabilized bituminous surface on a 28-32 roadway, entirely on new location.

The existing section of road has several hazardous curves in an otherwise satisfactory highway, engineers stated. Particularly in wet weather does the shady Cedar Lane roadway reduce safe driving speed below that of the remainder of the roadway. Proposed construction would improve alignment, grade and surface.

Tuck Not To Call Special School Session

Richmond, April 21.- Governor Tuck does not intend to call a special session of the General Assembly "at any time in the near future."

The chief executive made this clear in a letter to Delegate Robert Whitehead of Nelson County, this week, in reply to a plea from the Nelson legislator for an extra session to appropriate funds for public school construction purposes.

Whitehead had referred to the "affluent" condition of the state while describing the localities as heavily "burdened" with debt.

The Governor said the situation with respect to school buildings was not new, and pointed out that during the recent session of the General Assembly there was no proposal to divert funds set aside for state buildings to school building purposes. Whitehead had referred to the $50,000,000 which the state has set up in unconditional appropriations for buildings and improvements and $21,000,000 in conditional appropriations for similar purposes.

"So far as I am informed," the Governor wrote Whitehead, "no proposal was made either to the Appropriations Committee of the House, in the Finance Committee of the Senate, or on the floor of either body that the $50,000,000 be transferred to local school construction . .

"I do not know that any prolific source of state revenue, yet untapped, could be reached, except by a general sales tax."

W. R. STRATTON

Brent Stratton and Ethelbert Marshall Stratton, both of this county, and two neices, Mrs. Marvin H. Kent, and Miss Nancy Patricia Cheatham of Lynchburg.
